

SPRING 2009 WEEKLY SCHEDULE

Week	Movie	Country	Run Time	Genre
One (1/27)	No Movie	N/A	N/A	N/A
	Registration Information and CCN
Two (2/3)	Waterboys	Japan	90 Min	Comedy
	Based on a true story, a group of young high school boys get together to put on a synchronized swimming show for their high school festival. But can the boys outshine the ladies in this graceful sport? One of the best movies of 2001, this comedy will definitely have you laughing nonstop.
Three (2/10)	200 Pound Beauty	Korea	120 Min	Romantic Comedy
	Pop fans have no idea that Kang Hanna is the ghost singer for pop idol Amy. Despite her voice, Hanna is ridiculed for being obese. She secretly likes manager Sang Jun, but doesn't have the courage to tell him. In a desperate attempt to gain his affection, she turns to full-body plastic surgery!
Four (2/17)	The Magic Hour	Japan	136 Min	Comedy
	Bingo, a hustler, finds himself in a tight situation with the boss of a gang in the port town of Sukago. To make amends, Bingo promises the boss contact with a notorious hitman. However, Bingo has no way to find the man, so he hires an actor to play the role. Taiki Murata, the actor, has no idea what he gets himself into!
Five (2/24)	The Magic Hour	Japan		Comedy
Six (3/3)	IP Man	China	106 Min	Action/Drama
	A semi-biographical account of Ip Man, the first martial arts master to teach the Chinese martial art of Wing Chun. Taking place in the Second Sino-Japanese War, Ip Man and his fellow villagers of Fo Shan are oppressed by the Japanese.
Seven (3/10)	Shall We Dance	Japan	119 Min	Comedy/Drama
	Shohei Sugiyama is a predictable Japanese business man. He is a successful, yet unhappy Japanese accountant until he finds the missing passion in his life when he begins to secretly take ballroom dance lessons.
Eight (3/17)	Silmido	Korea	135 Min	Action Drama
	In 1968, this tale revolves around a group of 31 South Korean men originally sentenced to death who receive a parole on condition that they take part in a suicide retaliation commando. Later this elite battalion is double crossed by their own government that ordered their deaths after the secret plan is called off...
Nine (3/31)	Cape No. 7	Taiwan	129 Min	Drama
	Aga, a band singer, returns to Hengchun with frustration. Tomoko is a Japanese model assigned to organize a local warm-up band for the Japanese super star beach concert. Together with other five ordinary Hengchun residents, who are labeled mediocre at best, form an impossible band.
Ten (4/7)	Mad Detective	Hong Kong	89 Min	Crime Thriller
	Hot shot Regional Crime Unit Inspector Ho is in charge of an unsolved investigation. Having difficulty solving the case, Ho seeks help from his former boss Bun, once recognized as a gifted criminal profiler until he was judged crazy years ago. Bun has the ability to see into a person's inner personality. What begins as a quest for answers has now taken a schizophrenic turn where truth and lies, reality and delusions, intertwine...
Eleven (4/14)	My Sassy Girl	Korea	123 Min	Romantic Comedy
	Gyeon-woo is an ordinary college student who has a chance meeting with a drunk girl on the train. This drunk girl ends up changing Gyeon-woo life in ways he would never have imagined.
Twelve (4/21)	The God of Cookery	Hong Kong	95 Min	Comedy
	Stephen Chow directs and stars in this hilariously funny story about a cocky, power driven cooking king who loses everything to his evil, ambitious undersutdy. His only hope is an unsightly street vendor (Karen Mok) who is secretly in love with him.
Thirteen (5/5)	Class Vote	N/A	N/A	N/A